MOOSE JAW

The Beauty Spot of the Prairies

OUR City has much to offer in the way of accommodation and entertainment. Fine hotels at reasonable rates are located near the Club quarters and within easy reach of the shopping centres. Moose Jaw boasts the finest Tourist Camp in the West. This camp offers the comforts of a fine hotel in the cool, quiet setting of River Park. You may care to visit our Natatorium and swim in the "Briny" a thousand miles from the sea. Another point of great interest is our Wild Animal Park which brings you close to Wild Life in its Natural Haunts. Golf, Tennis and Theatres will also help to make your stay with us an enjoyable holiday.

Moose Jaw is the third largest city in Saskatchewan and has a population of 20,000. Of its population 79.5% is of British racial origin. It was incorporated as a town on February 12, 1884, and raised to the status of a city November 30, 1903. Elevation above sea level, 1,778 feet to 1,840 feet. It is 375 miles by air from Calgary in the west and the same distance from Winnipeg in the east.

The City's area is 9,760 acres, of which 5,327 acres are agricultural, 1,977 acres suburban and the built up area 2,256 acres.

Moose Jaw has 4,723 dwellings with 4,778 households, 3,246 telephones, 2,263 automobiles, 4,215 radios, and 4,556 electric light consumers. There are 19 Public Schools, two Collegiates, one Technical School and one Normal Training School for teachers.

The main business thoroughfares are paved with asphaltic concrete. The water supply is secured from the South Saskatchewan River, seventy miles distant from the city, and the sewage disposal system has just been completely modernized.

The city has twelve parks with an area of 186 acres. There are two hospitals, a public library, one radio station, CHAD; one daily newspaper, The Times-Herald; and six chartered banks. The Airport and Customs Harbor, 251 acres in extent, elevation 1,840 feet above sea level, is one of the finest natural flying fields in the Dominion.

The mean winter temperature in Moose Jaw (January, February and December) is 7.3 deg. F. and the mean summer temperature (June to September) is 60.75 deg. F. The normal annual precipitation is 14.6 inches. The annual average bright sunshine hours per day is 6.3.

Within a radius of 60 miles of the city there are thirty-five rural municipalities, sixty-three towns and villages, and two cities, with a total population of 139,244.

Message From the Lieutenant Governor

GOVERNMENT HOUSE, REGINA

MR. L. F. McDONALD, Grand Exalted Ruler; OFFICERS AND GRAND LODGE DELEGATES
OF THE BENEVOLENT AND PROTECTIVE ORDER OF ELKS.

DEAR SIR:

It is my pleasure to welcome to our Province of Saskatchewan delegates to the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks Convention from all parts of Canada, from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Those of you who came from our far Eastern Provinces and the Pacific Coast are, perhaps, not familiar with the many problems which we in Saskatchewan, or in fact in the three Prairie Provinces, have had to contend. This last ten years we have had to wage a continuous battle against the ravages of drouth, plagues of grasshoppers, and resultant crop failures. But the spirit of the Westerner has not yet been daunted. We have carried on, and I am happy to say that we now seem to be on the highroad to better times once more. Last year there was a decided improvement in conditions in the West, and we are looking for still greater improvement from now on.

To have been selected for this Grand Lodge Convention should be considered an honour for the Province of Saskatchewan, and it is my hope that your stay here will be enjoyable and one to be remembered. I trust I will have the pleasure of meeting old friends and associates who are members of your organization.

I trust your activities and endeavours will meet with every success in the future as has undoubtedly been the case in past years. Please accept my personal best wishes for a very successful Convention.

Yours sincerely,

A. P. McNAB,
Lieutenant Governor

Message From Mayor J. W. Corman

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR,
MOOSE JAW, SASK.

TO THE ELKS OF CANADA:

I HAVE much pleasure in extending to all the Elks of Canada a cordial invitation to attend the 28th Annual Grand Lodge Convention to be held in Moose Jaw, "The Friendly City," on the 17th, 18th and 19th days of July, 1940.

The get-together convention spirit will do much to maintain morale on the home front during these dark war days.

I hope as many as possible will attend and can assure you that Moose Jaw will do its utmost to see that your sojourn is enjoyable and that you leave wanting to return.

Yours faithfully,

J. W. CORMAN,
Mayor

Message From the Grand Exalted Ruler

BROTHER ELKS.

GRAND LODGE of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Canada and Newfoundland, this year holds its annual session at Moose Jaw, Sask., the home of Moose Jaw Lodge No. 7, one of the oldest units in the Canadian Order. We will be royally entertained and welcomed with the warmest pleasure by the Brothers of Moose Jaw Lodge, who have left nothing undone to make this year's session a complete success, both in the deliberations of Grand Lodge, and as an outstanding social function.

It is a keen pleasure to extend my most sincere fraternal greetings to all attending the Convention, and to issue a hearty welcome to the 28th session of Grand Lodge.

The 1940 session will deal with problems and policies more far-reaching and of greater importance than ever before. Our country is at war, and on each of us rests a great responsibility in planning the work of the Order for the coming year. As a unit in our country's great social structure, we must at all times take such course as will assist Canada to the greatest possible extent. My confidence in the Order and in its members is stronger and deeper than ever before, and I look to the 1940 Convention to make a signal contribution to Canada's effort.

Allow me here to extend to all my heartfelt thanks for the unfailing co-operation and consideration that has at all times been extended to me during my term of office.

Fraternally yours,

L. F. McDONALD,
Grand Exalted Ruler

GRAND CONVENTION, MOOSE JAW, SASK., WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY, FRIDAY, JULY 17, 18, 19, 1940

Message of the Grand Secretary-Treasurer

BROTHER ELKS:

BY a strange coincidence the Third Annual Convention of our Grand Lodge was opened in Moose Jaw September 8th, 1914, closely following the outbreak of hostilities in the First World War. We now find ourselves again meeting at Moose Jaw in the early stages of the Second World War.

We are thankful, however, that Elksdom is more firmly entrenched at this time than it was in 1914, and a spirit of optimism is apparent among its members.

I am glad to report that our Order has made very satisfactory progress this year and everything points to a continuation of its forward march in the future.

It has always been a source of pleasure to me to have the opportunity at our Annual Convention of personally meeting my Brother Elks, and I am looking forward again to seeing you all, and to making many new and cherished friendships.

With every good wish, I am,

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

ROYAL BURRITT,
Grand Secretary-Treasurer

Eaton's

Things that Belong, Stick!

IN A BOOM ERA, as in eras of depression, there are things that belong and others that don't. Usually people who know their jobs manage to stick along through thick and thin . . . through bad times and good! Pretty much the same is true of business in general and departmental stores in particular. The fact that EATON'S has increased from a small store employing four people in 1869 to a Canada-wide organization employing twenty-eight thousand at present, would indicate that we knew our job . . . and did it! But such phenomena, growth depends on other factors too . . . customer satisfaction . . . and confidence in us. This confidence, we feel, has been established by the sound principles laid down by the founder . . . Mr. Timothy Eaton. "Good value in good merchandise" was one. "Strict veracity in advertising" . . . another. And behind them all . . . behind every article sold by EATON'S, from 1869 to the present day, the EATON slogan "Goods Satisfactory or Money Refunded."

This Is a Friendly Store

Message of the Exalted Ruler of Moose Jaw

GRAND LODGE OFFICERS, DELEGATES AND VISITORS
BROTHER ELKS.

AS Exalted Ruler of Moose Jaw Lodge No. 7, it gives me great pleasure to welcome you all to the 1940 Grand Lodge Convention.

As this is the first time for quite a number of years that the Grand Lodge has convened in Southern Saskatchewan, it is our hope that the Convention will be a success from every point of view. With this idea in mind, committees have been working since early in the year and I would like, at this time, to thank, sincerely, all who have in any way contributed to the success that I am sure the Convention will be.

To the Grand Lodge we express the hope that your sessions will be harmonious and beneficial to the Order at large.

To the visitors we express the wish that you visit all the points of interest you can, become acquainted with our City and its citizens so that when you return to your homes you will agree that Moose Jaw is indeed the "Friendly City" and that the boys at No. 7 are indeed real hosts and Brother Elks.

Wishing you all a successful and enjoyable Convention, I remain,

Fraternally yours,

C. W. COOPER,
Exalted Ruler

In Saskatchewan It's DREWRY'S SPECIAL

• For more than sixty years, the name "DREWRY'S" in the West has stood for the finest in beer. DREWRY'S SPECIAL has a full-bodied, mellow flavor all its own. It has the tang, the sparkle, the satisfying taste that comes from masterful brewing and thorough aging. And so it is we are sure you who are visitors to this province will agree that in Saskatchewan it's DREWRY'S SPECIAL.

Best wishes for the success of the B.P.O.E. National Convention in Moose Jaw and for the enjoyment of the delegates while visiting in Saskatchewan.
